Thy fingers make early flowers of all things.
thy hair mostly the hours love:
a smoothness which sings, saying (though love be a day)
do not fear, we will go amaying.

thy whitest feet crisply are straying.
Always
thy moist eyes are at kisses playing, whose strangeness much
says; singing
(though love be a day)
for which girl art thou flowers bringing?

To be thy lips is a sweet thing and small.
Death, Thee i call rich beyond wishing if this thou catch,
else missing.
(though love be a day
and life be nothing, it shall not stop kissing).
All in green went my love riding
on a great horse of gold
into the silver dawn.

four lean hounds crouched low and smiling
the merry deer ran before.

Fleeter be they than dappled dreams the swift sweet deer
the red rare deer.

Four red roebuck at a white water the cruel bugle sang before.

Horn at hip went my love riding riding the echo down
into the silver dawn.

the level meadows ran before.

Softer be they than slippered sleep the lean lithe deer
the fleet flown deer.

Four fleet does at a gold valley the famished arrow sang before.

Bow at belt went my love riding riding the mountain down
into the silver dawn.

the sheer peaks ran before.
Paler be they than daunting death the sleek slim deer
the tall tense deer.

Four tall stags at a green mountain the lucky hunter sang before.

into the silver dawn.

my heart fell dead before.

Mister Death
the Cambridge ladies who live in furnished souls are unbeautiful and have comfortable minds (also, with the church’s protestant blessings daughters, unscented shapeless spirited) they believe in Christ and Longfellow, both dead, are invariably interested in so many things—at the present writing one still finds delighted fingers knitting for the is it Poles? perhaps. While permanent faces coyly bandy scandal of Mrs. N and Professor D
. . . . the Cambridge ladies do not care, above Cambridge if sometimes in its box of sky lavender and cornerless, the moon rattles like a fragment of angry candy it may not always be so; and I say that if your lips, which I have loved, should touch another’s, and your dear strong fingers clutch his heart, as mine in time not far away; if on another’s face your sweet hair lay in such a silence as I know, or such great writhing words as, uttering overmuch, stand helplessly before the spirit at bay;

if this should be, I say if this should be—you of my heart, send me a little word; that I may go unto him, and take his hands, saying, Accept all happiness from me.
Then shall I turn my face, and hear one bird sing terribly afar in the lost lands. suppose
Life is an old man carrying flowers on his head.

young death sits in a café smiling, a piece of money held between his thumb and first finger

(i say “will he buy flowers” to you and “Death is young life wears velour trousers life totters, life has a beard” i say to you who are silent.—“Do you see Life? he is there and here, or that, or this or nothing or an old man 3 thirds asleep, on his head flowers, always crying

to nobody something about les roses les bluet

yes,

will He buy?

Les belles bottes—oh hear,
, pas chères”)

and my love slowly answered I think so. But I think I see someone else

there is a lady, whose name is Afterwards she is sitting beside young death, is slender; likes flowers.

here is little Effie's head
whose brains are made of gingerbread when the judgment day comes God will find six crumbs stooping by the coffinlid waiting for something to rise as the other somethings did—you imagine His surprise bellowing through the general noise Where is Effie who was dead?

—to God in a tiny voice, i am may the first crumb said whereupon its fellow five crumbs chuckled as if they were alive and number two took up the song, might i'm called and did no wrong cried the third crumb, i am should and this is my little sister could with our big brother who is would don't punish us for we were good; and the last crumb with some shame whispered unto God, my name is must and with the others i've been Effie who isn't alive just imagine it I say God amid a monstrous din watch your step and follow me stooping by Effie's little, in (want a match or can you see?) which the six subjunctive crumbs twitch like mutilated thumbs: picture His peering biggest whey coloured face on which a frown puzzles, but I know the way—(nervously Whose eyes approve the blessed while His ears are crammed with the strenuous music of the innumerable capering damned) —staring wildly up and down the here we are now judgment day cross the threshold have no dread lift the sheet back in this way.

Spring is like a perhaps hand (which comes carefully out of Nowhere) arranging a window, into which people look (while people stare
arranging and changing placing carefully there a strange thing and a known thing here) and changing everything carefully spring is like a perhaps Hand in a window (carefully to

and fro moving New and Old things, while people stare carefully moving a perhaps fraction of flower here placing an inch of air there) and without breaking anything.

who knows if the moon's a balloon, coming out of a keen city in the sky—filled with pretty people?
(and if you and i should get into it, if they should take me and take you into their balloon, why then
we'd go up higher with all the pretty people than houses and steeples and clouds:
go sailing
away and away sailing into a keen city which nobody's ever visited, where always
it's Spring) and everyone's in love and flowers pick themselves i like my body when it is with your body. It is so quite new a thing. Muscles better and nerves more.
i like your body. i like what it does, i like its hows. i like to feel the spine of your body and its bones, and the trembling -firm-smooth ness and which i will again and again and again kiss, i like kissing this and that of you, i like, slowly stroking the, shocking fuzz of your electric fur, and what-is-it comes over parting flesh . . . . And eyes big love-crumbs, and possibly i like the thrill of under me you so quite new little tree

little silent Christmas tree you are so little you are more like a flower who found you in the green forest and were you very sorry to come away?

see i will comfort you because you smell so sweetly

i will kiss your cool bark and hug you safe and tight just as your mother would,
only don’t be afraid

look the spangles
that sleep all the year in a dark box dreaming of being taken out and allowed to shine, the balls the chains red and gold the fluffy threads,

put up your little arms and i’ll give them all to you to hold every finger shall have its ring and there won’t be a single place dark or unhappy then when you’re quite dressed you’ll stand in the window for everyone to see and how they’ll stare!

oh but you’ll be very proud and my little sister and i will take hands and looking up at our beautiful tree we’ll dance and sing “Noël Noël”

Humanity i love you because you would rather black the boots of success than enquire whose soul dangles from his watch-chain which would be embarrassing for both parties and because you unflinchingly applaud all songs containing the words country home and mother when sung at the old howard

Humanity i love you because when you’re hard up you pawn your intelligence to buy a drink and when you’re flush pride keeps you from the pawn shop and because you are continually committing nuisances but more especially in your own house

Humanity i love you because you are perpetually putting the secret of life in your pants and forgetting it’s there and sitting down on it and because you are forever making poems in the lap of death Humanity

i hate you

i had an uncle named

nearly everybody said he should have gone

thos cook & son

(O to be a metope now that triglyph's here) a man who had fallen among thieves lay by the roadside on his back dressed in fifteenthrate ideas wearing a round jeer for a hat fate per a somewhat more than less emancipated evening had in return for consciousness endowed him with a changeless grin whereon a dozen staunch and leal citizens did graze at pause then fired by hypercivic zeal sought newer pastures or because swaddled with a frozen brook of pinkest vomit out of eyes which noticed nobody he looked as if he did not care to rise one hand did nothing on the vest its wideflung friend clenched weakly dirt while the mute trouserfly confessed a button solemnly inert.

Brushing from whom the stiffened puke i put him all into my arms and staggered banged with terror through a million billion trillion stars voices to voices, lip to lip i swear (to noone everyone) constitutes undying; or whatever this and that petal confutes . . .
to exist being a peculiar form of sleep what's beyond logic happens beneath will;

nor can these moments be translated: i say that even after April by God there is no excuse for May —bring forth your flowers and machinery: sculpture and prose flowers guess and miss machinery is the more accurate, yes it delivers the goods, Heaven knows (yet are we mindful, though not as yet awake, of ourselves which shout and cling, being for a little while and which easily break in spite of the best overseeing)

i mean that the blond absence of any program except last and always and first to live makes unimportant what i and you believe; not for philosophy does this rose give a damn . . .

bring on your fireworks, which are a mixed splendor of piston and of pistil; very well provided an instant may be fixed so that it will not rub, like any other pastel.

(While you and i have lips and voices which are for kissing and to sing with who cares if some oneeyed son of a bitch invents an instrument to measure Spring with?) each dream nascitur, is not made . . . ) why then to Hell with that: the other; this, since the thing perhaps is to eat flowers and not to be afraid.
“next to of course god america i love you land of the pilgrims’ and so forth oh thy sons acclaim your glorious name by gorry by jingo by gee by gosh by gum why talk of beauty what could be more beaut-who rushed like lions to the roaring slaughter they did not stop to think they died instead then shall the voice of liberty be mute?”

lady i swear by all flowers. Don't cry —the best gesture of my brain is less than your eyelids' flutter which says we are for each other: then laugh, leaning back in my arms for life's not a paragraph

And death i think is no parenthesis if i have made, my lady, intricate imperfect various things chiefly which wrong your eyes (frailer than most deep dreams are frail) songs less firm than your body’s whitest song upon my mind—if i have failed to snare the glance too shy—if through my singing slips the very skillful strangeness of your smile the keen primeval silence of your hair

—let the world say “his most wise music stole nothing from death”—

you only will create (who are so perfectly alive) my shame:
lady through whose profound and fragile lips the sweet small clumsy feet of April came into the ragged meadow of my soul. i sing of Olaf glad and big whose warmest heart recoiled at war: a conscientious object-or his wellbelovéd colonel (trig westpointer most succinctly bred) took erring Olaf soon in hand; but—though an host of overjoyed noncoms (first knocking on the head him) do through icy waters roll that helplessness which others stroke with brushes recently employed anent this muddy toiletbowl, while kindred intellects evoke allegiance per blunt instruments—Olaf (being to all intents a corpse and wanting any rag upon what God unto him gave) responds, without getting annoyed

"I will not kiss your f.ing flag" straightway the silver bird looked grave (departing hurriedly to shave) but—though all kinds of officers (a yearning nation's blueeyed pride) their passive prey did kick and curse until for wear their clarion voices and boots were much the worse, and egged the firstclassprivates on his rectum wickedly to tease by means of skilfully applied bayonets roasted hot with heat—Olaf (upon what were once knees) does almost ceaselessly repeat

"there is some s. I will not eat" our president, being of which assertions duly notified threw the yellowsonofabitch into a dungeon, where he died

Christ (of His mercy infinite) I pray to see; and Olaf, too preponderatingly because unless statistics lie he was more brave than me: more blond than you. if there are any heavens my mother will (all by herself) have one. It will not be a pansy heaven nor a fragile heaven of lilies-of-the-valley but it will be a heaven of black red roses my father will be (deep like a rose pass ignorantly into sleep's bright land a clown's smirk in the skull of a baboon (where once good lips stalked or eyes firmly stirred) my mirror gives me, on this afternoon; i am a shape that can but eat and turd eres with the dirt death shall him vastly gird, a coward waiting clumsily to cease whom every perfect thing meanwhile doth miss;

a hand's impression in an empty glove, a soon forgotten tune, a house for lease.
I have never loved you dear as now i love behold this fool who, in the month of June, having of certain stars and planets heard, rose very slowly in a tight balloon until the smallening world became absurd; him did an archer spy (whose aim had erred never) and by that little trick or this he shot the aeronaut down, into the abyss —and wonderfully i fell through the green groove of twilight, striking into many a piece.

I have never loved you dear as now i love

god's terrible face, brighter than a spoon, collects the image of one fatal word; so that my life (which liked the sun and the moon) resembles something that has not occurred: I am a birdcage without any bird, a collar looking for a dog, a kiss without lips; a prayer lacking any knees but something beats within my shirt to prove he is undead who, living, noone is.
I have never loved you dear as now i love.
Hell(by most humble me which shall increase) open thy fire! for i have had some bliss of one small lady upon earth above; to whom i cry,remembering her face,
i have never loved you dear as now i love if i love You

Flowers resembles beauty less than our breathing somewhere I have never travelled, gladly beyond any experience, your eyes have their silence:
in your most frail gesture are things which enclose me, or which I cannot touch because they are too near your slightest look easily will uncloze me though I have closed myself as fingers, you open always petal by petal myself as Spring opens (touching skilfully, mysteriously) her first rose or if your wish be to close me, I and my life will shut very beautifully, suddenly, as when the heart of this flower imagines the snow carefully everywhere descending;

nothing which we are to perceive in this world equals the power of your intense fragility: whose texture compels me with the colour of its countries, rendering death and forever with each breathing

(i do not know what it is about you that closes and opens; only something in me understands the voice of your eyes is deeper than all roses) nobody, not even the rain, has such small hands but if a living dance upon dead minds why, it is love; but at the earliest spear of sun perfectly should disappear moon's utmost magic, or stones speak or one name control more incredible splendor than our merely universe, love's also there:
and being here imprisoned, tortured here love everywhere exploding maims and blinds (but surely does not forget, perish, sleep cannot be photographed, measured; disdains the trivial labelling of punctual brains. . .

though life's lived wrongsideout, sameness chokes oneness truth is confused with fact, fish boast of fishing death (having lost) put on his universe and yawned: it looks like rain (they've played for timelessness with chips of when) that's yours; I guess

you'll have to loan me pain to take the hearse,
see you again.

Love (having found) wound up such pretty toys as themselves could not know:

anyone lived in a pretty how town (with up so floating many bells down) spring summer autumn winter he sang his didn’t he danced his did.

Women and men (both little and small) cared for anyone not at all they sowed their isn’t they reaped their same sun moon stars rain

children guessed (but only a few and down they forgot as up they grew autumn winter spring summer) that noone loved him more by more when by now and tree by leaf she laughed his joy she cried his grief bird by snow and stir by still anyone’s any was all to her someones married their everyones laughed their cryings and did their dance (sleep wake hope and then) they said their nevers they slept their dream stars rain sun moon (and only the snow can begin to explain how children are apt to forget to remember

one day anyone died i guess (and noone stooped to kiss his face) busy folk buried them side by side little by little and was by was all by all and deep by deep and more by more they dream their sleep no one and anyone earth by april wish by spirit and if by yes.

Women and men (both dong and ding) summer autumn winter spring reaped their sowing and went their came
sun moon stars rain
my father moved through dooms of love through sames of am through haves of give, singing each morning out of each night my father moved through depths of height this motionless forgetful where turned at his glance to shining here; that if (so timid air is firm) under his eyes would stir and squirm newly as from unburied which floats the first who, his april touch drove sleeping selves to swarm their fates woke dreamers to their ghostly roots and should some why completely weep my father's fingers brought her sleep: vainly no smallest voice might cry for he could feel the mountains grow.

Lifting the valleys of the sea my father moved through griefs of joy; praising a forehead called the moon singing desire into begin joy was his song and joy so pure a heart of star by him could steer and pure so now and now so yes the wrists of twilight would rejoice keen as midsummer's keen beyond conceiving mind of sun will stand, so strictly (over utmost him so hugely) stood my father's dream his flesh was flesh his blood was blood: no hungry man but wished him food; no cripple wouldn't creep one mile uphill to only see him smile.

Scorning the pomp of must and shall my father moved through dooms of feel; his anger was as right as rain his pity was as green as grain septembering arms of year extend less humbly wealth to foe and friend than he to foolish and to wise offered immeasurable is proudly and (by octobering flame beckoned) as earth will downward climb, so naked for immortal work his shoulders marched against the dark his sorrow was as true as bread:

no liar looked him in the head; if every friend became his foe he'd laugh and build a world with snow.

My father moved through theys of we,
singing each new leaf out of each tree (and every child was sure that spring danced when she heard my father sing) then let men kill which cannot share, let blood and flesh be mud and mire, scheming imagine, passion willed, freedom a drug that's bought and sold giving to steal and cruel kind, a heart to fear, to doubt a mind,

to differ a disease of same,

grinned his grin
done his chores
laid him down.

Sleep well
let it go—the
smashed word broken
open vow or
the oath cracked length wise—let it go it
was sworn to go
let them go—the truthful liars and the false fair friends
and the boths and neithers—you must let them go they were born
to go
let all go—the big small middling
tall bigger really
the biggest and all things—let all go
dear
so comes love
nothing false and possible is love (who's imagined, therefore limitless) love's to giving as to keeping's give;
as yes is to if, love is to yes must's a schoolroom in the month of may:

life's the deathboard where all now turns when (love's a universe beyond obey or command, reality or un-) proudly depths above why's first because (faith's last doubt and humbly heights below) kneeling, we—true lovers—pray that us will ourselves continue to outgrow all whose mosts if you have known and i've only we our least begin to guess except in your honour,

my loveliest,
nothing
may move may rest
—you bring

(out of dark the earth)a procession of wonders huger than prove our fears were hopes: the moon open for you and close will shy wings of because; each why of star (afloat on not quite less than all of time) gives you skilful his flame

so is your heart alert, of languages there's none but well she knows; and can perfectly speak (snowflake
and rainbow mind
and soul
november and april)

who younger than begin
are, the worlds move
in your
(and rest, my love)
honour
true lovers in each happening of their hearts live longer than all which and every who;
despite what fear denies, what hope asserts, what falsest both disprove by proving true

(all doubts, all certainties, as villains strive and heroes through the mere mind's poor pretend —grim comics of duration: only love immortally occurs beyond the mind) such a forever is love's any now and her each here is such an everywhere, even more true would truest lovers grow if out of midnight dropped more suns than are (yes; and if time should ask into his was all shall, their eyes would never miss a yes) yes is a pleasant country:

if’s wintry
(my lovely)
let’s open the year
both is the very weather (not either)
my treasure,
when violets appear
love is a deeper season
than reason;
my sweet one (and april’s where we’re) all ignorance toboggans into know and trudges up to ignorance again: but winter's not forever, even snow melts; and if spring should spoil the game, what then?

all history's a winter sport or three:
but were it five, I'd still insist that all history is too small for even me; for me and you, exceedingly too small.

Swoop (shrill collective myth) into thy grave merely to toil the scale to shrillness per every madge and mabel dick and dave —tomorrow is our permanent address and there they'll scarcely find us (if they do, we'll move away still further: into now darling! because my blood can sing and dance (and does with each your least your any most very amazing now or here) let pitiless fear play host to every isn't that's under the spring

— but if a look should april me, down isn't's own isn't go ghostly they doubting can turn men's see to stare their faith to how their joy to why their stride and breathing to limp and prove
— but if a look should april me, some thousand million hundred more bright worlds than merely by doubting have darkly themselves unmade makes love armies (than hate itself and no meanness unsmaller) armies can immensely meet for centuries and (except nothing) nothing's won
— but if a look should april me
for half a when, whatever is less alive than never begins to yes
but if a look should april me (though such as perfect hope can feel only despair completely strikes forests of mind, mountains of soul) quite at the hugest which of his who death is killed dead. Hills jump with brooks:
trees tumble out of twigs and sticks;
"sweet spring is your time is my time is our
time for springtime is lovetime
and viva sweet love"

(all the merry little birds are flying in the floating in the very spirits singing in are winging in the blossoming) lovers go and lovers come awandering awondering but any two are perfectly alone there’s nobody else alive

(such a sky and such a sun i never knew and neither did you and everybody never breathed quite so many kinds of yes)

not a tree can count his leaves each herself by opening but shining who by thousands mean only one amazing thing

(secretly adoring shyly tiny winging darting floating merry in the blossoming always joyful selves are singing)

time for springtime is lovetime
and viva sweet love"
o by the by has anybody seen
little you-i
who stood on a green hill and threw
his wish at blue

with a swoop and a dart out flew his wish (it dived like a fish but it climbed like a dream) throbbing like a heart singing like a flame

blue took it my far beyond far
and high beyond high bluer took it your
but bluest took it our away beyond where

what a wonderful thing
is the end of a string (murmurs little you-i as the hill becomes nil)
and will somebody tell me why people let go
if everything happens that can't be done (and anything's righter than books
could plan)
the stupidest teacher will almost guess (with a run
skip
around we go yes)
there's nothing as something as one

one hasn't a why or because or although (and buds know better
than books
don't grow)
one's anything old being everything new (with a what which around we come who) one's everyanything so

so world is a leaf so tree is a bough (and birds sing sweeter
than books
tell how)
so here is away and so your is a my (with a down
up
around again fly)
forever was never till now now i love you and you love me (and books are shuter
than books
can be)
and deep in the high that does nothing but fal (with a shout
each around we go all)
there's somebody calling who's we

we're anything brighter than even the sun (we're everything greater than books
might mean)
we're everything more than believe (with a spin
leap alive we're alive)
we're wonderful one times one when serpents bargain for the right to squirm and the sun strikes to gain a living wage—when thorns regard their roses with alarm and rainbows are insured against old age when every thrush may sing no new moon in if all screech-owls have not okayed his voice —and any wave signs on the dotted line or else an ocean is compelled to close when the oak begs permission of the birch to make an acorn—valleys accuse their mountains of having altitude—and march denounces april as a saboteur then we'll believe in that incredible unanimal mankind (and not until) if a cheerfulest Elephantangelchild should sit (holding a red candle over his head by a finger of trunk, and singing out of a red book) on a proud round cloud in a white high night where his heartlike ears have flown adorable him self tail and all (and his tail's red christmas bow) —and if, when we meet again, little he (having flown even higher) is sunning his penguinsoul in the glow of a joy which wasn’t and isn’t and won’t be words while possibly not (at a guess) quite half way down to the earth are leapandswooping tinily birds whose magical gaiety makes your beautiful name—i feel that (false and true are merely to know) Love only has ever been, is, and will ever be, So at last perfection, now and here — but look: not sunlight? yes!

and (plunging rapturously up) we spill our masterpiece if (touched by love's own secret) we, like homing through welcoming sweet miracles of air (and joyfully all truths of wing resuming) selves, into infinite tomorrow steer —souls under whom flow (mountain valley forest) a million wheres which never may become one (wholly strange; familiar wholly) dearest more than reality of more than dream—how should contented fools of fact envision the mystery of freedom? yet, among their loud exactitudes of imprecision, you'll (silently alighting) and I'll sing while at us very deafly a most stares colossal hoax of clocks and calendars i thank You God for most this amazing day: for the leaping greenly spirits of trees and a blue true dream of sky; and for everything which is natural which is infinite which is yes

(i who have died am alive again today, and this is the sun's birthday; this is the birth day of life and of love and wings: and of the gay great happening illimitably earth)

how should tasting touching hearing seeing breathing any—lifted from the no of all nothing—human merely being doubt unimaginable You?

(now the ears of my ears awake and now the eyes of my eyes are opened) the great advantage of being alive (instead of undying) is not so much that mind no more can disprove than prove what heart may feel and soul may touch —the great (my darling) happens to be that love are in we, that love are in we and here is a secret they never will share for whom create is less than have or one times one than when times where—that we are in love, that we are in love:

with us they’ve nothing times nothing to do (for love are in we am in i are in you) this world (as timorous itsters all to call their cowardice quite agree) shall never discover our touch and feel —for love are in we are in love are in we;

for you are and i am and we are (above and under all possible worlds) in love a billion brains may coax undeath from fancied fact and spaceful time—no heart can leap, no soul can breathe but by the sizeless truth of a dream whose sleep is the sky and the earth and the sea.

For love are in you am in i are in we when faces called flowers float out of the ground and breathing is wishing and wishing is having—but keeping is downward and doubting and never —it's April (yes, April; my darling) it's spring! yes the pretty birds frolic as spry as can fly yes the little fish gambol as glad as can be (yes the mountains are dancing together) when every leaf opens without any sound and wishing is having and having is giving—but keeping is doting and nothing and nonsense —alive; we're alive, dear: it's (kiss me now) spring! now the pretty birds hover so she and so he now the little fish quiver so you and so I (now the mountains are dancing, the mountains) when more than was lost has been found has been found and having is giving and giving is living—but keeping is darkness and winter and cringing —it's spring (all our night becomes day) o, it's spring!

all the pretty birds dive to the heart of the sky all the little fish climb through the mind of the sea (all the mountains are dancing; are dancing) love our so right now all the fingers of this tree (darling) have hands, and all the hands have people; and more each particular person is (my love) alive than every world can understand and now you are and i am now and we're a mystery which will never happen again, a miracle which has never happened before—and shining this our now must come to then our then shall be some darkness during which fingers are without hands; and i have no you: and all trees are (any more than each leafless) its silent in forevering snow
